kirstyes

Hello. Evening all. Who is out there to talk using film and tv for CPD and reflection #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:01:02 PDT 2012

OTalk_Occhat

Evening all. I (@kirstyes) am leading #OTalk tonight. I'll be tweeting from that account. Hope you are all well.

Tue Apr 3 12:02:07 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet

@kirstyes I'm here :) not really an area I'd considered before though #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:03:31 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

Howdy all, I'm no longer in presentation hell so can join in this week :) hope everyone is well #otalk

kirstyes

Hi all, had you considered using broadcast media such as film and tv within your CPD? #OTalk

kirstyes

@VirtualOT Nice to have you on board #OTalk - A topic you are familiar with?

Tue Apr 3 12:05:56 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@heatherclarinet yep it's a bit of a new one for me too - we use youtube on my course, but not really film/tv #otalk

heatherclarinet

I'd never before, but since I knew this was coming up be been thinking about it!! I probably should document more (1/2) #OTalk

kirstyes

@VirtualOT ps. Don't forget the #OTalk hashtag like I did just a minute ago ;0))

Tue Apr 3 12:06:37 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet

(2/2) as I watch several OT/disability/health related programmes and have views and opinions! #OTalk

kirstyes

@heatherclarinet I think this is true of CPD activity in most cases. We all do it but don't make note of it.#OTalk So what are your thoughts

Tue Apr 3 12:08:24 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@Lisa_D_OT @heatherclarinet Tell me more about how you use YouTube? Just viewing or creating too? #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:08:53 PDT 2012

kirstyes

RT @heatherclarinet: (2/2) as I watch several OT/disability/health related programmes and have views and opinions! #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:09:02 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

@kirstyes #OTalk what's the topic? (sorry I didn't check)

Tue Apr 3 12:09:40 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@heatherclarinet Yes me too. The one I should have written about was the Winterborne view documentary. #OTalk

heatherclarinet

@kirstyes there's always a lack of #OT in the media!! And the services that we do provide are often portrayed as another profession #OTalk

kirstyes

@VirtualOT no probs. using films and tv fr CPD and reflection. #OTalk

heatherclarinet

@kirstyes one that stands out for me was a bbc doc few weeks ago on young people with ld moving on, OT was not mentioned at all!!!! #OTalk

kirstyes

@heatherclarinet Interesting point. Do you think that's because we aren't seen as frontline staff? #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:11:45 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

@kirstyes #OTalk No I am not really up to date with that topic. Will watch and learn while I can

Tue Apr 3 12:12:15 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@kirstyes just viewing - pictures speak a thousand words :) perhaps we should be more creative with it though - #OT on youtube #otalk

kirstyes

Would you just consider documentary style programmes or biopics or can fictional programme give us insight too? #OTalk

heatherclarinet

@kirstyes possibly. aim of programme was to highlight lack of services, so cynical me says we were strategically omitted! #OTalk

willwade

@heatherclarinet maybe the prob is Its the people that matter and what they end up doing nt the journey 2 the media #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:13:26 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

#OTalk I wonder if Pintrest could be used to illustrate CPD?

Tue Apr 3 12:13:57 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet @willwade how do you mean? #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:14:17 PDT 2012

kirstyes @heatherclarinet Didn't see that I did once tweet BBC because they had been looking at stroke rehab but no OT mention. No response #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:14:21 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT @heatherclarinet there are some programmes that highlight OTs work - one on channel 5 recently #otalk
Tue Apr 3 12:14:26 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet @kirstyes I like the proactive approach! #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:14:54 PDT 2012

kirstyes @VirtualOT No I'm not sure whether that many people have considered it as a valid form for reflection. #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:15:13 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet @Lisa_D_OT which was that? I must have missed it, I don't watch c5 much! #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:15:31 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk #OTalk evening all
Tue Apr 3 12:15:48 PDT 2012

kirstyes @Lisa_D_OT You Tube seems to be used by OT students more in other parts of world. Are we scared to do same? #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:16:24 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT RT @VirtualOT #OTalk I wonder if Pintrest could be used to illustrate CPD? -like this idea, don't really use it but looks interesting #otalk
Tue Apr 3 12:16:31 PDT 2012

kirstyes @willwade @heatherclarinet I think that's very true. But then people learn from the media and so won't know to ask for OT. #OTalk
Tue Apr 3 12:18:23 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT @heatherclarinet only realised when another OT tweeted about it! Was called big body squad, OTs in bariatric services #otalk
Tue Apr 3 12:18:34 PDT 2012

kirstyes “@VirtualOT: #OTalk I wonder if Pintrest could be used to illustrate CPD?” I don't see why not. It shows collection of resources with brief
Tue Apr 3 12:19:08 PDT 2012

kirstyes @VirtualOT #OTalk if you use the comments boxes.
Tue Apr 3 12:19:25 PDT 2012

willwade

@kirstyes prob is you can't force it to the media. Its a PR exercise to mk an interesting angle.Get an OT to shout/moan about smethin #OTalk

kirstyes

@Helen_otuk Evening Helen. Have you any insights on using film/tv for CPD? #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:20:27 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@kirstyes Possibly - requires 'performance' skills, and maybe courses don't see it as being academic enough? #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:21:15 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk I have never made a film or anything as exciting, but have utilised film/tv to reflect upon.

Tue Apr 3 12:21:18 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk very useful for looking at peoples lives and coping strategies... even environmental issues

kirstyes

@Lisa_D_OT True. I think that is a risk though it can be 'academic' if planned thoroughly. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:23:16 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

I do not usually watch Coronation Street, but this week very interesting from carer perspective of caring for person with dementia. #OTalk

willwade

Is there a UK reseller of any of the MOHO assessment tools OT's? want 2 cut down on shipping! #OTalk

kirstyes

Obviously 'real life' programmes are valid but I'd like us to think about use of fictional or fictionalised films/tv and their use #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:24:09 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk could then be used for reflective work or focus of a project

Tue Apr 3 12:24:14 PDT 2012

kirstyes

RT @Helen_otuk: #OTalk very useful for looking at peoples lives and coping strategies... even environmental issues

Tue Apr 3 12:24:34 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@willwade I only know of MOHO Clearinghouse sorry. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:25:11 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@kirstyes Agree. Would be great to use other ways to assess students on courses - e.g. make a youtube clip/ write a blog post etc. #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:25:49 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk i am not a 'soap' fan, but I think it is a good medium for highlighting issues and then can be used to consider topics.

kirstyes

Two films I think I've used successfully with students are Inside I'm Dancing and the Temple Grandin biopic #OTalk #AutismAwareness

Tue Apr 3 12:26:12 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

@kirstyes #OTalk not films i know?? I do not think, will have to look them out. I am not a big film buff.

Tue Apr 3 12:27:32 PDT 2012

kirstyes

I think because films/tv series give a detailed insight into character they can be used to apply theory to a 'case study' n #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:27:44 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@kirstyes will look them up :) #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:28:39 PDT 2012

kirstyes

Also when looking at middle adulthood for lifespan development I got my class to apply theories to the characters from Friends #OTalk

kirstyes

@Helen_otuk Think that might be why I'm interested. I love films. #multitasking #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:30:02 PDT 2012

heatherclarinet

I agree with the development of characters in fictional provide opportunities for OT role, such as emmerdale, OT completed home ax #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:30:07 PDT 2012

Lisa_D_OT

@Helen_otuk I did use a film I saw recently, 50/50, to reflect on professionalism (or lack of it!) but not OT specific #otalk

kirstyes

@Lisa_D_OT Claire Danes did a great job portraying Temple Grandin. James McAvoy is in Inside I'm Dancing. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:31:20 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

@kirstyes #OTalk although I am not a film buff, I can still see the use of doing so. Think it can span a range of interests.

Tue Apr 3 12:31:28 PDT 2012

kirstyes

What might some of the risks be of using films/ tv programmes in this way? #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:32:03 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

@kirstyes #OTalk for personal / group discussion or reflection?

Tue Apr 3 12:32:50 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@Lisa_D_OT @helen_otuk But this is part of OT, considering generic and transferable skills too. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:33:11 PDT 2012

cumbrianclaire

@kirstyes I tell (advise) students to watch the Shawshank Redemption for an example of the effect of institutionalisation #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:34:00 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk I guess it is not 'real' but does it need to be to be a useful tool?

Tue Apr 3 12:34:11 PDT 2012

kirstyes

What about films like Little Miss Sunshine even. Not traditional reflection material but can consider meaning of dancing to her, etc #OTalk

kirstyes

“@Helen_otuk: @kirstyes #OTalk for personal / group discussion or reflection?” either/or.

Tue Apr 3 12:34:41 PDT 2012

cumbrianclaire

@kirstyes I thought Hollyoaks a few yrs ago depicted Schozophrenia very well #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:34:41 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@cumbrianclaire Welcome. Thanks for this. Good suggestion. Excellent film. One Flew Over Cuckoos Nest also good for this. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:35:34 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk I think that many films / tv show are good to demonstrate group / family dynamics. Even if not related to a 'condition'.

Tue Apr 3 12:35:42 PDT 2012

kirstyes

“@Helen_otuk: #OTalk I guess it is not 'real' but does it need to be to be a useful tool?” I say no but need to consider critical analysis

Tue Apr 3 12:36:14 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

#OTalk I liked Robin Williams in Patch Adams and reflected on the use of humour in my engagement with clients

kirstyes

@Helen_otuk Often films may highlight a particularly positive or negative viewpoint. Uses emotion to drive audience reaction #OTalk

VirtualOT

@cumbrianclaire @kirstyes I haven't seen Hollyoaks #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:37:55 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@VirtualOT So do you think it directly impacted on your practice? #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:38:15 PDT 2012

kirstyes

@Lisa_D_OT I think some universities (maybe not always on OT courses) do use these methods. #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:39:54 PDT 2012

cumbrianclaire

@kirstyes There was a C4 drama a little while ago about a lady with MH probs - it was great! I can't remember what it was called! #otalk

heatherclarinet

Ive found that I've often been educated by such programmes/films. They provided another insight #OTalk

Tue Apr 3 12:40:32 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

@kirstyes #OTalk I think it gave me "permission" to use humour as it had been validated

Tue Apr 3 12:40:49 PDT 2012

Tue Apr 3 12:41:20 PDT 2012

cumbrianclaire

@kirstyes It was about a girl "in the system" and another girl entering it. What was it called? #otalk

Tue Apr 3 12:41:33 PDT 2012

Helen_otuk

#OTalk I found 'Who will love my children' very insightful as to the emotional aspects of diagnosis and end of life planning.

Tue Apr 3 12:41:47 PDT 2012

VirtualOT

@heatherclarinet #OTalk Yes me too!

Tue Apr 3 12:42:03 PDT 2012
